

TOWN OF CREIGHTON
BYLAW 5-2008

A BYLAW OF THE TOWN OF CREIGHTON, IN THE PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN TO REGULATE THE KEEPING OF DANGEROUS DOGS.

The Council of the Town of Creighton, in the Province of Saskatchewan under the provisions of section 100.02 of the Northern Municipalities Act enacts as follows:

Short Title

1. This bylaw may be cited as The Dangerous Dog Bylaw.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this bylaw is to promote the safety, health and welfare of people and the protection of people and property in the Town of Creighton and to ensure the humane treatment of dogs by regulating the keeping of dangerous dogs within the Town.

Definitions

3. In this bylaw, in any amending bylaws, and in any schedules attached hereto, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless there is something in the subject matter inconsistent therewith:
 - (a) the word “Town” means the Northern Town of Creighton or, where, the context requires, the geographical area within the town limits of the Town of Creighton.
 - (b) The term “Animal Control Officer” means that person appointed by the Council or the Protective Services Committee established by the Council.
 - (c) the word “judge” means a judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan , a justice of the peace, peace officer or chairman of the Protective Services Committee.
 - (d) the word “owner” includes a person who keeps, possesses or harbors a dog and/or the person responsible for the custody of a minor where the minor is the owner of a dog, but does not include a veterinarian or the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) operating pursuant to The Animal Protection Act, with respect to an animal shelter or impoundment facility operated by any of them.

Application

4. That all the provisions and enactments set forth to this Bylaw shall relate to, and be in full force and effect within the limits of the Town of Creighton and shall apply to domestic dogs in the Town.

Dangerous Dogs

- 5.(1) A dog is dangerous where it proved that:
 - (a) the dog, without provocation, in a vicious or menacing manner, chased or approached a person or domestic animal in an apparent attitude of attack;
 - (b) the dog has known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack without provocation, to cause injury or to otherwise threaten the safety of person or domestic animals;

(c) the dog has, without provocation, bitten, inflicted injury, assaulted or otherwise attacked a person or domestic animal.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a dog is presumed not to have been provoked, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Exemption

6. No dog shall be considered dangerous where an action described in section 5 occurred while the dog was:

(a) acting in the performance of police work; or working as a guard dog on commercial property;

i. securely enclosed on the property by a fence or other barrier sufficient to prevent the escape of the dog and the entry of children of tender years, and

ii. defending that property against a person who was committing an offence.

Fighting Dogs Considered Dangerous

7. Notwithstanding the generality of Section 5, a dog is dangerous where it is proved that the dog is owned primarily or in part for the purpose of dog fighting or is trained for dog fighting.

Dangerous Dog Hearing

8.(1) If a complaint is made that a dog is dangerous, a judge or alternate as defined in Section 3 (c) shall hold a hearing to determine if, based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing, the dog is, in fact dangerous.

(2) Notice of the hearing referred to in subsection (1) shall be served upon the owner of the dog. The notice shall be served:

(a) in the case of an owner who is an individual:

i. be delivering it personally to the owner; or

ii. if the owner cannot conveniently be found, by leaving it for the owner at the owner's residence with a person at that residence who appears to be at least 18 years of age;

(b) in the case of an owner that is a corporation:

i. by sending it by registered mail to the registered office of the corporation; or

ii. by delivering it personally to the manager, secretary or other executive officer of the corporation or the person in charge of any office or other place where the corporation has their registered official(s).

(3) Where an owner does not appear at the time and place appointed for the hearing after having been notified of that time or place, the judge may proceed ex parte to hear and determine the proceedings in the absence of the owner as fully and effectively as if the owner had appeared.

(4) If the judge is satisfied, on the evidence, that the dog is dangerous, the judge shall make an order embodying all of the following terms:

(c) if the dog is removed from the owner's property, the dog shall be muzzled and leashed in accordance with section 16 and kept under direct control and supervision;

(d) the owner shall inoculate the dog against rabies in accordance with section 17;

- (e) if the dog is moved to a different city or municipality, the owner shall notify the clerk or administrator of that city or municipality;
 - (f) if the dog is to be sold, given away or otherwise disposed of, the owner shall:
 - i. notify the prospective owner that the dog has been declared dangerous, before it is sold or given away; and
 - ii. notify the Animal Control Officer of the proposed disposition and of the name, address and telephone number of the prospective owner of the dog;
 - (g) if the dog is unlicensed, the owner shall, at the owner's expense and within ten (10) days of the date of the order, purchase the requisite license for the dog;
 - (h) the owner shall have the dog microchipped or tattooed in accordance with section 18.
- (5) An order pursuant to subsection (4) may also include any or all of the following term:
- (a) the owner shall keep the dog in an enclosure in accordance with section 19;
 - i. the owner shall obtain and keep in effect, liability insurance in an amount of not less than $400,000.00 for any bodily injury to or death of any person or domestic animal, or for damages to property, caused by the dog;
 - (b) the owner shall display signs, in accordance with section 2, on the owner's property warning of the presence of the dog and shall continue to display the signs in good condition so long as the dog is present on the property;
 - (c) The owner shall have the dog spayed or neutered;
 - (d) The owner shall take such other measures as the judge considers appropriate.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (4), a judge may, in the alternative, order that the dog be destroyed or otherwise disposed of at the owner's expense and shall give directions with respect to the destruction of other disposition. If this is the case the dog is to be impounded until such order is carried out.
- (7) Where an order has been made pursuant to subsection (5) against the owner, the owner may apply to the judge who made the order for an order that compliance with the provisions of clause (5) (b) be waived.
- (8) On an application pursuant to subsection (7), the judge may waive compliance with clause (5) (b), on any terms and conditions that the judge considers reasonable, where the judge is satisfied that the owner is unable to comply with the requirements of that clause for a reason other than the owner's financial circumstances.
- (9) A person desiring to appeal an order pursuant to this section shall, within seven (7) days of the order being appealed from, file a notice of appeal with Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, and the provisions of Part XXV11 of the Criminal Code apply with any necessary modification.

Offences and Penalties

9. (1) Any person who owns a dog for the purpose of dog fighting, or trains, torments, badgers, baits or otherwise uses a dog for the purpose of causing or encouraging the dog to make unprovoked attacks on persons or domestic animals is guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person who displays a sign in the form required by subsection 20(1) and who is not acting in accordance with an order made pursuant to section 8 or 9 or has not received the permission of the Tow to display the sign is guilty of an offence.
- (3) Any person who does not comply with any part of an order made against him or her pursuant to subsection 8(4), 8(5), 8(6) is guilty of an offence.
- (4) Any person who owns a dog that, without provocation, attacks, assaults, wounds, bites, injures or kills a person or domestic animal, is guilty of an offence.
- (5) A person who is guilty of an offence pursuant to this section is liable on summary conviction:
 - (a) in the case of an individual, to fine not exceeding $10,000.00, or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both;
 - (b) in the case of a corporation, to a fine not exceeding $25,000.00, or imprisonment of the directors of the corporation for not more than one year, or both.
- (6) In addition to imposing the penalty under subsection (5), the judge may:
 - (a) make an order embodying the terms of subsection 8(4) that may also include the terms of subsection 8(5); or
 - (b) make an order that the animal be destroyed or otherwise disposed of at the owner's expense and shall be given directions with respect to the destruction or other disposition.
- (7) A person desiring to appeal an order or conviction pursuant to this section shall, within seven days of the order or conviction being appealed from, file a notice of appeal with the Court, and the provisions of Part XXV11 of the Criminal Code apply with any necessary modification.

Orders Binds Subsequent Owner

10. An order issued pursuant to section 8 or 9 continues to apply if the dog is sold or given to a new owner or is moved to a different municipality.

Execution of Destruction Order

- 11.(1) Unless the owner otherwise agrees, every order for destruction of a dog shall state that it shall not be implemented for eight days.
- (2) Where an appeal is taken against an order for the destruction of a dog the application of the order is stayed pending the disposition of the appeal.
- (3) Regardless of the outcome of the appeal, the owner shall be responsible for the payment of the costs of impoundment of the dog pending the hearing.

Return of Dog

12. Where the judge on appeal overturns the order for destruction of the dog, the dog shall be released to the owner after the owner has paid the costs of impoundment of the dog pending the hearing.

Destruction by Peace Officers

13. (1) A peace officer as defined by the Criminal Code may destroy any dog that the officer finds injuring or viciously attacking a person or domestic animal.

(2) A peace officer who, in good faith, destroys a dog pursuant to subsection (1) is not liable to the owner for the value of the dog.

Entry and Search

14. (1) Subject to section 100.08 (1) of the Northern Municipalities Act, a peace officer, as defined by the Criminal Code, or the Animal Control Officer having reasonable grounds to believe that a dog is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of and that the dog is in or on any premises (other than a dwelling house, vehicle or chattel) may enter the premises to search for the dog and impound the dog or, if there is an order to destroy or otherwise dispose of the dog, deliver the dog to the person appointed in the order to destroy or otherwise dispose of the dog.

(2) Where it appears to a judge, on information laid before him or her on oath, that there are reasonable and probable grounds for believing that a dog that has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of is in any dwelling place or any other premises or vehicle or chattel, the judge may issue a warrant and search for the dog, and the peace officer may impound and deliver the dog to the person appointed by the judge to destroy or otherwise dispose of it.

Charges May Be added to Property Taxes

15. If the dog has been subject of a complaint or hearing and the dog has been impounded, declared dangerous, ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, or has been returned to the owner pursuant to section 12 and the owner of the dog does not pay the costs of impoundment or destruction or disposal of the dog the costs;
